Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 47 year old born in Mexico who has been a resident alien since 1987. ICE has filed a detainer against him based on a gun conviction in California.
2. Defendant is married and has five children who are U.S. citizens. His 7 siblings are resident aliens living in Texas. He traveled to Mexico last year and has a Mexican passport.
3. Defendant's criminal history includes arrests for giving false information to a peace officer, battery and resisting an officer, and unlawfully carrying a weapon and tampering with identification numbers. He was convicted in California on misdemeanor charges of driving under the influence, cruelty to a child, driving with a suspended license, and carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle, and in Harris County, Texas for driving while intoxicated.
4. Defendant is currently charged with possession of an unregistered firearm in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 5867, and being an illegal immigrant in possession of firearms in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922. He is facing a penalty of up to 10 years in prison.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
